

ROBERTA CARRIERI

NEW ALBUM OUT ON THE 26TH OF FEBRUARY

"RELAZIONE COMPLICATA"

(contains an unreleased track written by Davide Van de Sfroos)

Out on the 26th of February, "Relazione Complicata", the new album by Italian (Pugliese) singer-songwriter Roberta Carrieri (distribution by Self). The album contains 13 unreleased tracks including the song "San Pietro" by Davide Van De Sfroos.

"Relazione Complicata" (Complicated Relationship) takes a light-hearted and ironic look at the subject of emotional dependence, inspired by American psychologist, robin Norwood's book, "Women Who Love Too Much". This album sees the participation of Italian rockabilly combo, The Rock'n'Roll Kamikazes (lead by ex-frontman of The Hormonauts, Andy Macfarlane), and Brazilian band, Selton.

"In this day and age almost everybody has had some kind of complicated relationship or other," says Roberta Carrieri. "I've enjoyed recounting some of them in this album. There are songs about betrayal and jealousy, songs about painful love affairs or love affairs didn't even get started, songs about a love for a person that has grown over the years or even the often conflictual love for one's own city."

Before dedicating herself to music Roberta Carrieri has, over the years, matured a large experience in the performing arts, with theatre company Teatro Kismet and the musical/theatrical group Quarta Parete. She went on to become the voice of Fiamma Fumana, one of the most important Italian exponents of world music, touring widely in the United States and Canada.

In 2009 she released her first solo album "Dico A Tutti Così" (X-Beat/Goodfellas) which includes collaborations with figures such as Cesare Basile, Rodrigo D'Erasmus (Afterhours), Davide Toffolo (Tre Allegri Ragazzi Morti) and Mauro Ermanno Giovanardi. This album takes Roberta as far afield as France, Belgium and even the United States (Arizona, New Mexico, California and Utah)

In 2010, Roberta starts collaborating with Italian singer Davide Van De Sfroos, participating in the song, "Dove Non Basta Il Mare" on the album "Yanez" and appearing as special guest in the subsequent tour.

www.robortacarrieri.com

Milan, January 30, 2013

Press Agency Parole & Dintorni: Valentina Corna - valentina@paroleedintorni.it - 335/5632717

Management/ radio and tv promotion: Gianpiero Canino - gianpiero.canino@me.com - 338/7259194